

BOARD OF LICENSING OF AUCTIONEERS INFORMATION

EXAM PROCESS

1. You must submit your exam application and nonrefundable fee at least two weeks before the exam date.
2. You will receive an exam admission letter approximately two weeks before the exam.
3. The exam is administered in Gardiner, Maine.
4. Your exam results will be mailed within to you one week after the exam date. Exam results will not be released over the telephone.
5. After passing the exam, you must apply for an Auctioneer license within 90 days of the exam date.

PREPARING FOR THE EXAM

Exams questions are taken directly from the statute and regulations of the Board of Licensing of Auctioneers, Uniform Commercial Code and Title 10. Visit the Board website at www.maine.gov/professionallicensing for links to this information.

CONTENT AREAS

- | | | |
|-----------------------------------|--------------------------|-------------------------|
| -Standards of Professional Ethics | -Definitions | -Contracts |
| -Conditions of Auction Sales | -Exemptions | -Licensing |
| -Limitation on Sale of Property | -Board Practice | -Unprofessional Conduct |
| -Technical Standards of Practice | -Uniform Commercial Code | |

ON EXAM DAY

Be sure to bring photo identification (such as a driver's license) to the exam. It is a closed book exam which consists of 50 multiple-choice and true/false questions. You must score 80% or better to pass the exam.

QUESTIONS

If you have questions about the exam or the licensing process, please contact Deborah Fales (Deborah.A.Fales@maine.gov). You may also reach her at (207) 624-8521.